

In the video this picture was taken from, the detainee explains: “They gave us two eggs for our dinner and how can these two eggs possibly fill our stomachs? It is not clear at all whether they are spoiled or from two days ago. They are completely cold, and I don’t know which day they are from, maybe they are from two days ago. And look, this one is broken too.” (translated from Farsi)